This Self-Certification of Late Rollover form is used when accepting a rollover contribution more than 60 days after the IRA owner received the initial distribution. The form allows the IRA owner to self-certify the reason(s) he/she was unable to complete the rollover within 60 days of receipt of the distribution.

Section 2 60-day exception reasons

I intended to make the rollover within 60 days after receiving the distribution but was unable to do so for the following reason(s) (check all that apply):

- An error was committed by the financial institution making the distribution or receiving the contribution
- The distribution was in the form of a check and the check was misplaced and never cashed.
- The distribution was deposited into and remained in an account that I mistakenly thought was a retirement plan or IRA.
- My principal residence was severely damaged.
- One of my family members died.
- I (or one of my family members) was seriously ill.
- I was incarcerated.
- Restrictions were imposed by a foreign country.
- A postal error occurred.
- The distribution was made on account of an IRS levy and the proceeds of the levy have been returned to me.
- The party making the distribution delayed providing information that the receiving plan or IRA required to complete the rollover despite my reasonable efforts to obtain the information.

Section 3 Select your funds

Please use the Putnam Fund Guide (<https://www.putnam.com/literature/pdf/FM103.pdf>) to select your rollover contribution. You must enter the fund name and number for the corresponding share class you wish to establish. For additional fund elections, please attach a separate sheet of paper with fund number, fund name, dollar amount or percentage.

- For assets moved from an existing Putnam registration: Fund allocations will remain consistent with the originating Putnam account(s) unless otherwise indicated. In addition, the share class must remain consistent with the originating Putnam account(s).

Section 4 Authorization

Pursuant to Internal Revenue Service Revenue Procedure 2016-47, I certify that my contribution above missed the 60-day rollover deadline for the reason(s) listed in Section 2. I am making this contribution as soon as practicable after the reason or reasons listed in Section 2 no longer prevent me from making the contribution. I understand that this certification concerns only the 60-day requirement for a rollover and that, to complete the rollover, I must comply with all other tax law requirements for a valid rollover and with your rollover procedures.

Pursuant to Revenue Procedure 2016-47, unless you have actual knowledge to the contrary, you may rely on this certification to show that I have satisfied the conditions for a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement for the amount identified above. You may not rely on this certification in determining whether the contribution satisfies other requirements for a valid rollover.

I declare that the representations made in this document are true and that the IRS has not previously denied a request for a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to a rollover of all or part of the distribution to which this contribution relates. I understand that in the event I am audited and the IRS does not grant a waiver for this contribution, I may be subject to income and excise taxes, interest, and penalties. If the contribution is made to an IRA, I understand you will be required to report the contribution to the IRS.

Note: I also understand that I should retain a copy of this signed certification with my tax records.

My signature below also indicates that if I am designating an investment in a fund that I do not already own I have read the fund prospectus(es) and agree to the terms therein.
